FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RMC NEWS SERVICE -- Rocky Mountain College students were honored for their academic and civic accomplishments at the annual RMC Academic Awards Banquet April 7, 2009.

Presented with the prestigious President's Cup were Katherine Kitchen and Andy Babb. This award is presented by RMC President Michael Mace to two graduating seniors, one male and one female, based on scholarship, leadership and contributions to the RMC and greater community. Faculty make the selection.

Winning the Dean's Cup were Alison Reidmohr and Brian McDivitt. This award, presented by RMC Academic Vice President Anthony Piltz, goes to the male and female seniors with the highest cumulative grade point average.

The Ossie Abrams Faculty Awards went to Scott Severance, assistant professor, business administration and economics, and Dan Albrecht, professor, biology. For this award, graduating seniors nominate the teachers who "go beyond the call." The instructors receiving the highest number of nominations are selected to receive the award.

Departmental awards were also presented to students who achieved academic success:
