FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RMC NEWS SERVICE -- Rocky Mountain College students were honored for their academic and civic accomplishments at the annual RMC Academic Awards Banquet April 13, 2010.

Presented with the prestigious President's Cup was Rachel Luddington. RMC President Michael Mace presented this award to the graduating senior, based on scholarship, leadership and contributions to the RMC and greater community. Faculty makes the selection.

Winning the Dean's Cup were Emily Lambert and Steven Koston. This award, presented by RMC Academic Vice President Anthony Piltz, goes to the male and female seniors with the highest cumulative grade point average.

The Ossie Abrams Faculty Awards went to Barbara Vail, RMC associate vice president, professor of psychology, and director of education; and to Stephen Germic, RMC associate professor of English. For this award, graduating seniors nominate the teachers who "go beyond the call." The instructors receiving the highest number of nominations are selected to receive the award.
