FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BILLINGS -- Plans for Rocky Mountain College's 23rd Annual Black Tie Blue Jeans Scholarship Benefit are forging ahead with "fantastic cooperation and participation from many friends of the College," said Vicki Davison, RMC director of alumni relations and special projects.

The gala event, set for Friday, Nov. 5, 2010 at Billings Hotel & Convention Center, is co-chaired by RMC Board of Trustees Chris Dorr and Mary Underriner. The steering committee includes some familiar faces from past BTBJ events along with some new faces. Jim Gainan will take charge of theme and decorations; Jan Dietrich, Nicki Larsen and Kelsey Larsen-Daer are handling the live auction; Kathy Cross, Darla Jones and Kathy Pierce have signed on to organize the silent auction; Stella Ziegler will take care of dinner arrangements; and Karen Stensrud will be responsible for staging.

"Our meetings are filled with energy and excitement with everyone's goal to make this year's fundraiser fun and successful." Davison said. "It's wonderful to have so many people pitching in."
