FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BILLINGS – John and Darla Jones, a couple with a record of longstanding service to and support for Rocky Mountain College and the community at large, have been named this year's Honorary Chairs for Black Tie Blue Jeans, the College's annual scholarship benefit.

“We're delighted to have John and Darla as honorary chairs and we're looking forward to celebrating their association with the College while we also celebrate the Black Tie Blue Jeans tradition of helping our students,” said Vicki Davison, RMC director of advancement.

BTBJ will be held Friday, Nov. 4, 2011, at the Billings Hotel and Convention Center. The evening begins at 5:30 p.m. with cocktails and silent auction, followed by dinner and a live auction at 7:00 p.m. Dancing to the music of Midlife Chrysters follows dinner.

The theme this year is “Rock On!” which focuses on the progressive attitude of the College to accept new challenges and forge a bright future for its students, Davison said.

Darla Jones, who is a marketing executive with St. Vincent Healthcare, is a past Chair of BTBJ, and served many years on the BTBJ Committee. This year, she is organizing the silent auction for BTBJ. She has also been active in other community service projects, serving on the Saints Benefit for SVH, chairing Decorations committee and various committees, Sales Team 1997-present; Chair Evening Eagle Fest Event for Eagle Mount, 1994-1997; Team Captain Relay for Life, American Cancer Society 2004 – 2006; Chair Bear Bash, graduation party for WHS 2006; Interfaith Hospitality Network committee;

Western Heritage Center advisory committee; and Dress for Success – Sweet Success committee.

John Jones is an attorney with Moulton Bellingham, PC, one of Montana's oldest law firms, and has been a member of the RMC Board of Trustees since 1996. He is Director, Wells Fargo Bank of Billings, Montana Community Board of Directors (2003-Present); current Board Chair, The Charles M. Bair Family Trust Board of Advisors (2008-Present); President, Montana Captive Insurance Association (2004-present); President-Elect, Self-Insurance Institute of America (2008-present).

The couple has sons, Sean and Nathan.
