BILLINGS – Boxed editions of “Beowulf” and “Julius Caesar: The Gallic Wars,” a geological and historic guide to the Beartooth Highway with photos, and The New York Public Library Desk Reference will be among titles available during the 25th anniversary book sale at Rocky Mountain College in March.

The Paul M. Adams Library will conduct its annual book sale March 25 through March 28, 2010.

The classics, like a boxed edition of “The Song of Roland,” are represented alongside “The Satanic Gases,” a recent book on global warming.

“We have titles on subjects ranging from academic disciplines, such as history, medicine and religion, to travel and fiction,” said Alice O’Reilly, RMC library assistant.

Prices for books typically range from only 10 cents to $3. All items are half price on the last day of the sale, except for the dime paperbacks.

The sale will take place on campus in the Library during the following hours:

March 25	7:30 am to 10 pm
March 26	7:30 am to 4:00 pm
March 27	1 pm to 5 pm
March 28	1 pm to 10 pm

For more information on the sale, please contact Bobbi Otte, RMC library assistant director, (406) 657-1086 or email, otteb@rocky.edu.
