BILLINGS – The Rocky Mountain College equestrian team culminated a successful season of competition with several members qualifying for regional and semi-national tournaments. To build on that successful season and to improve the program, RMC equestrian apparel is being sold to support the program's students.

“The equestrian apparel is available for only a limited time so we're hoping people will buy early and often,” said Morgan Matteson, RMC equestrian team member said. “Proceeds will definitely help equestrian students.”

The apparel offered -- in black with green logo and gold lettering -- includes T-shirts, hooded sweatshirts, sweat pants and baseball caps. Both women's cut and long sleeved T-shirts are available. Prices are $13 for T-shirts; $15 for women's cut T-shirts; $18 for long sleeved T-shirts; $28 for hooded sweatshirts; $28 for sweat pants; and $18 for baseball caps.

RMC's Students In Free Enterprise (SIFE) is helping with the apparel sale.

Orders must be received, with payment, by Friday, April 1, 2011.
