BILLINGS -- The Clara Klindt Athletic Hall of Fame at Rocky Mountain College is accepting nominations for 2010 inductees until April 15.

Rocky athletes, former Battlin' Bear coaches, distinguished graduates and significant contributors to the school and athletic program are eligible for consideration. Athletes must be out of school for 10 years to be eligible for nomination.

"We're looking forward to having Rocky alumni digging deep to nominate people they feel are deserving and will represent the Hall in the manner we'd like to see it represented," said Randy Durr, chairman of the school's Hall of Fame selection committee.

An online nomination form is available at www.rocky.edu (go to Athletics, click on Hall of Fame). A letter can also be written and mailed to: Rocky Alumni Director Vicki Davison, 1511 Poly Drive, Billings, Mont. 59102.

Three is the maximum number of inductees the school will honor each year. Rocky's seven-member Hall of Fame selection committee is especially interested in nominees in the school's newer sports, including women's soccer, golf, skiing and volleyball.

The Hall of Fame committee will meet on April 23 to select this year's inductees. An announcement on the Class of 2010 will be made at a later date.

The new Hall of Fame members will be introduced and honored this fall during a "Hall of Fame" weekend on campus. They will be recognized during halftime of a football game and will be feted at an evening banquet. The inductees will also have a plaque placed in the school's Hall of Fame room in the Fortin Center.
