FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BILLINGS- Nearly 200 high school music students from across Montana have been accepted for the third annual Rocky Mountain College High School Invitational Honors Concert, to be held February 4th, 2011, at the Alberta Bair Theatre. The concert, which begins at 7:00 p.m. is free and open to the public.

Students accepted into the honors choir and band arrived on Wednesday, February 3, for a day of rehearsals and an open mike night at the Venture Theater. This event, at 7 p.m., is free and open to the public.

Friday morning they continue rehearsals before the performance at ABT.

The Billings Tourism Business Improvement District awarded RMC $1,400 to support the honors concert, which was used to secure the use of ABT.

Thanks to generous donors the concert is free to participants.
