INFORMATIONAL MEETING ON RMC SEMESTER IN ITALY TRIP

For more information: Mark Moak, RMC professor of art, 406.657.1094 / moakm@rocky.edu or Justin Jantz, RMC director, alumni relations, 406.657.1007 / Justin.jantz@rocky.edu. More details, including schedules and destinations, may be found here.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BILLINGS -- Rocky Mountain College is excited to announce a second study abroad opportunity for students in Italy during the Fall Semester of 2013.

Additionally, RMC is offering Dolce Vita, an Alumni/Parents/Friends Italy Tour, from October 10-18, 2013.

An informational meeting will be held Tuesday, January 29 at noon in the Selover Room of the Bair Family Student Union Building.

Students will begin at the Villa Pieve with Italian language and art history classes, then on to Rome and Florence for an up-close and personal art history encounter, led and taught by RMC Professor Mark Moak.

After two weeks of touring, the program returns to the Villa Pieve near Perugia, in the heart of Italy, where students will continue learn Italian from a local instructor and will record and post their experiences in a blog. Additionally, students will take courses in music history and travel photography. Music professors Sam Hamm and Jennifer Brtaz will teach music history and Dave M. Shumway, RMC staff photographer and adjunct instructor, will teach travel photography. Sixteen semester hours of college credit are offered.

For more information, contact Mark Moak, RMC professor of art, 406.657.1094 / moakm@rocky.edu or Justin Jantz, RMC director, alumni relations, 406.657.1007 / Justin.jantz@rocky.edu.

More details, including schedules and destinations, may be found here.

#    #

1/24/2013