

TWO ROCKY STUDENTS IN MISS MONTANA PAGEANT THIS WEEK

For more information: Miss Montana Scholarship Program, I.M.A.G.E Productions, Inc. (Independent Montana Affiliated Group Effort), P.O. Box 504 Glendive, MT 59330 / Ph. (406) 939-1392 / kburman@missmontana.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GLENDIVE – D'Jeane Peters and Angela Schneider, both students at Rocky Mountain College, are vying for the Miss Montana title this week. This is the 62nd annual Miss Montana Scholarship Program competition.

Miss Peters and Miss Schneider are two of ten contestants who will compete at the Dawson County High School auditorium, beginning Thursday night. Miss Montana will be crowned Saturday night.

People may vote for their favorite contestant by going to www.missmontana.com.

Miss Peters, the daughter of Davene Finkbeiner of Grass Range, Mont. and Roger Peters of Roy, Mont., is a graduate of Grass Range High School, who is majoring in communications at Rocky.

Miss Peters talent is piano and her platform is community service.

Miss Schneider, the daughter of Carol Kittler of Glendive and Jack Schneider of Glendive, is a graduate of Dawson County High School, and is majoring in English and psychology.

Miss Schnieder's talent is vocal performance and her platform is Joyful Hearts Foundation – Domestic Abuse Awareness.

#

6/15/2011