

REV. KNEE ADDRESSES HUMAN SEXUALITY DEBATE

For immediate release

CONTACT: Joel Harris (406) 670-3319 (cell), Philosophy and Religious Thought Society, Rocky Mountain College

BILLINGS -- On Tuesday, Nov. 3, 2009, the Philosophy and Religious Thought Society of Rocky Mountain College will be hosting a talk by the Rev. Jacob Knee, Rector at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, on the the question of human sexuality, a topic which is currently being debated in the Anglican Communion in Father Knee's home country of England. He will discuss how different ideas about Biblical authority have informed different judgments about human sexuality. The talk will be held at 4:00 p.m. in the Selover room of the Bair Family Student Center.

Questions and discussion to follow talk. Please come and join the conversation.

For additional information, contact Joel Harris (406) 670-3319 (cell), Philosophy and Religious Thought Society, Rocky Mountain College