FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BILLINGS – For Breast Cancer Awareness Month, the Rocky Mountain College Battlin’ Bears have designated their home game Saturday with Carroll College as “Pack the Bowl in Pink.”

“Our team will wear pink ribbon decals on their helmets and we’re hoping people coming to the game will wear pink to show support for the effort to fight breast cancer,” Robert Beers, RMC athletic director, said.

The Yellowstone Breast Center Mobile Coach will be on campus to provide public information, from tailgating, beginning at 11 a.m., through the game, which begins at 1 p.m., at Herb Klindt Field.
