

ROCKY ALUMNUS GETTING A LOT OF LAUGHS

For more information: Dan Burkhart, Rocky Mountain College director of news and information, (406) 657-1104 / burkhard@rocky.edu

BILLINGS – A Rocky Mountain College graduate, who is carving out a career as a comedian, hopes local folks will come see him perform Friday, Sept. 17 at Bones Brewery.

Lukas Seely was known as Lukas Keutla when he attended RMC from 2000-2004, graduating with a degree in business administration with a minor in theatre arts. The Billings native chose his middle name for his stage name. Lukas also played football for the Battlin' Bears and won the Mr. Rocky 2004 contest for his comedy routine.

He is currently working in Las Vegas with famed comedian Louie Anderson, who featured him on his stand-up Showtime program "Louie Anderson Presents." Seely has opened for comedians Dane Cook, Damon Wayans, Ron White, and Greg Giraldo, to name a few.

Seely frequently returns to Billings to organize comedy nights at Asian Nites (he will perform in November with Auggie Smith, another Billings comedian who appeared on Last Comic Standing and is a frequent guest on the Bob & Tom Show).

"I'll be unveiling my new haircut which looks like Mo from the Three Stooges," he joked about his performance at Bones.

Lukas lives in Los Angeles. You can find out more about Seely by visiting (<http://www.laughstub.com/Lukas-Seely>) and <http://www.facebook.com/Lukas.Seely.Presents>.

performing . . .

Lukas Seely's NEW

Haircut

and

ALL-STAR BILLINGS

Comedians

Friday Sept. 17th at 8pm

College Night Stand-Up Comedy

as seen on

Live at

BONES

ages 18+

