FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BILLINGS – Rocky Mountain College students will host the 7th annual RMC Soapbox Derby Races, Tuesday, Sept. 28, 2010, at 5:30 p.m. The public is welcome to attend this free event.

“We’re just doing it for fun, pure and simple,” said Heather Grotbo, RMC student activities director. “It’s not a fund raiser.”

The derby is open to all students and clubs who wish to enter a non-motorized car in the race, to be held on the Morledge Walkway, south of Bair Family Student Center. Organizations from the community are welcome to enter as well.

“Ten cars are entered already,” said Jase Oriet, who is helping organize the event.

Oriet said he expected one entry from a perennial participant – KULR-8 TV.

For more information about entering a soapbox derby race car in the derby, contact Jase Oriet, RMC Associated Students / Student Activities, 657-1093, jase.orient@rocky.edu.
