FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BILLINGS – The Rocky Mountain College Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHSA) Equestrian Team invites the public to a free show at the Intermountain Equestrian Center, Sunday, Sept. 19, at 8:30 a.m.

The show will feature seven classes: Western Horsemanship (judges the rider), Western Pleasure (judges the horse), Reining, Hunt Seat Equitation (English, judges the rider), Hunt Seat Under Saddle (English, judges the horse), a walk/trot class for riders looking to gain show experience in a low pressure situation and finally the Ride-a-Buck class, according to RMC Team Captain Meredith Burton.

“Some of the events are fun as well as instructional, like the Ride-a-Buck, where a dollar bill is placed between the saddle and the knee, and the goal is to not let the dollar drop,” she said.

Judge for the show is Emily McGeachy, RMC’2010, and a graduate of the program.

The RMC team members will operate a concession stand and accept donations to raise money for the team travel expenses to competitions in Montana, Idaho and Utah. The team is also seeking sponsors.

The Intermountain Equestrian Center is located at 7265 Highway 3.
