FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

BILLINGS -- Nearly 200 high school music students from across Montana, Idaho, and Washington have been accepted for the Fourth Annual Rocky Mountain College Invitational Honors Concert, to be held Friday, February 3, 2012, at the Alberta Bair Theatre.

The concert, which begins at 7:00 p.m., is free and open to the public.

Students accepted into the honors choir and band arrive Thursday, February 2 for a day of rehearsals.

Friday morning they continue rehearsals before the performance at ABT.

This annual event could not happen without support from the community, according to Kelly Edwards, RMC vice president, enrollment services.

“Our thanks to Venture Theatre where students will go the first evening for pizza and a performance by the Venture Impov Troupe. Thank you to First United Methodist Church for the use of their gym for both band and choir rehearsals. And additional thanks to the Best Western Clocktower Inn for their support and contribution to this event,” Edwards noted.
