FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BILLINGS – The Associated Students of Rocky Mountain College (ASRMC) and Residence Life Staff will hand out treats to goblins, ghouls and ghosts who visit Anderson, Widenhouse, Jorgensen and Rimview Halls on the campus, from 4 p.m. – 7 p.m., Oct. 31, 2010. Participating residence hall rooms will have "Trick-or-Treat" signs on the door.

“Our students look forward to this program every year. It provides a safe and warm way for the kids to trick or treat, and also helps the students connect with the community,” said Katie Minick, Rocky Mountain College Director of Housing.

An adult should accompany costumed children.
