Dr. Gavin Kirton, Rocky Mountain College assistant chemistry professor, and members of the RMC Chemistry Club, will be collaborating with Dr. Thomas Lewis, MSUB chemistry professor, and members of the MSUB Chemistry Club, to present a Chemistry Magic Show, Saturday, March 26 at the Billings Clinic Science Expo.

“There will be plenty of spectacular tricks, including the banana hammer, elephant's toothpaste, jug of mystery, and a carbide cannon,” said Dr. Kirton.

There will be two shows – free and open to the public -- at 11:00 a.m. and at 1:00 p.m. in the MSUB library auditorium. The RMC students include Brittney Cheff, Christina Mark, and Patrick Wolters, and graduate Bjorn Ottosson.

RMC faculty is also helping with judging science projects for the Expo. Both Dr. Ulrich Hoensch, RMC associate mathematics professor, and K. Stuart Smith, RMC associate computer science professor will be judges.
