FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BILLINGS -- More than 240 high school music students from across Montana have been accepted for the Rocky Mountain College Invitational Honors Concert, to be held January 29, 2010, at 7 p.m., at Faith Chapel Worship Center.

The concert is free and open to the public.

Organized last year by Jesse Murphy, an RMC 2008 summa cum laude graduate who was hired to be the college's outreach and development coordinator, this year's event doubles the number of high school students who will participate.

"It will be a joint performance by the best high school musicians in the state. We believe the best music will be made by the best musicians so we're excited to present this year's concert," he said.

The high school students will perform with the RMC Choir, under the direction of Dr. Steven Hart, and the RMC Band, under the direction of Mr. Tony Hammond.

"This program affords gifted high school musicians an opportunity to perform in a collegiate-level ensemble," Murphy said.

Students were selected for the RMC Invitational Honors Concert by submitting audition recordings or by having recommendations from music instructors.

Those who were accepted to participate include:
