FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BILLINGS – Rocky Mountain College invites the public to a reception honoring the RMC men's and women's ski teams on Wednesday, March 16, 2011, at 11:30 a.m. in the Fortin Education Center Gym.

RMC men's team won the U.S. Collegiate Ski Association national title in alpine combined skiing, while the women's ski team finished second, while winning the national championship in skier cross. This is the third men's national collegiate ski championship.

“We hope people in Billings will share in our pride in bringing this national championship to our city and state,” said Robert Beers, Rocky Mountain College athletic director. “We want everyone to meet our teams and our coach, Jerry Wolf, and celebrate the accomplishments of our student athletes.”

The event is free and open to the public.
