FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BILLINGS -- Rocky Mountain College will offer five theatre scholarships each semester to junior and senior high school students, said Jesse Murphy, RMC Fine Arts ambassador with the RMC Admissions Office.

“This is a program that provides collegiate-level experience and credits for talented high school students who like the excitement and challenge of theatre,” Murphy said.

The scholarships are in technical and performance theatre and will be fully transferable college credits. The courses include introduction to theatre, acting I and II, puppetry, stage makeup, scene painting, and a theatre practicum.

Enrollment and application forms are available online at theatre.rocky.edu or by contacting Jesse Murphy, jesse.murphy@rocky.edu, 406-657-1026.

The deadline for the Spring 2009 semester is Nov. 20, 2008.
