

THIRD THURSDAY FEATURES PROF. MARK MOAK LECTURE: “WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE HUMAN?:

For more information: Rocky Mountain College Chaplain Rev. Kristi Foster, 657-1098 or kristi.foster@rocky.edu

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BILLINGS – Rocky Mountain College Art Professor Professor Mark Moak will present the first RMC Life Lecture as part of the Third Thursday Series, hosted by the RMC Chaplain's Office.

Prof. Moak’s theme will be “What does it mean to be human?” He will deliver his free, public lecture in the Fortin Education Center Auditorium on Thursday, April 14, 2011, from 7:00 – 9:00 p.m. Refreshments will be served following the lecture.

The Life Lecture is inspired by the Last Lecture Series, featuring Randy Pausch of Carnegie Mellon University. Each year as part of the RMC Chaplain’s Third Thursday program, faculty and students will choose one faculty member to give a lecture on Life Lessons and the future.

#

4/04/2011