FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BILLINGS – A charity that helps athletes who have been severely injured in action sports will benefit from the winners of the decorated Christmas tree contest at Rocky Mountain College, according to Jayme Green, RMC director of student activities.

“Stand Strong Again” was chosen by the RMC Ski Team to receive the $250 it won for the best-decorated tree by a vote of those attending the annual RMC Yule Log Dinner, held Dec. 5, 2010.

“There were 250 votes by faculty, staff and students attending the Yule Log Dinner and the ski team’s tree was voted best of a half dozen entries,” Green said.

Other trees were decorated by students from Outdoor Recreation, Physics Club, SIFE, GSA and the Chaplain ministry.

The annual event is sponsored by the RMC Dean of Students Office and Associated Students of RMC.
