FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BILLINGS – The Association of Fundraising Professionals will honor Obert Udem, Rocky Mountain College director of planned giving, on Thursday, Nov. 13, 2008.

Udem is the 2008 recipient of the Outstanding Professional Fundraisers award.

“I am surprised and greatly honored to receive this award,” stated Udem. “It reflects the great amount of help I have had from associates and donors here at Rocky Mountain College.”

The dinner and awards ceremony will take place at the Billings Depot at 2310 Montana Avenue. The ceremony begins at 5:30 p.m. and will last until 7:30 p.m.

Tickets cost $35.00 each and should be reserved by Friday, Nov. 7, 2008 by contacting Vicki Davison at (406) 657-1005. The AFP will present five awards including Udem’s.

Udem has been at Rocky since 1995. Originally from Glendive, Mont., he received his BA in economics from Carlton College in Northfield, Minnesota. Udem earned an MBA at Harvard University School of Business and a JD degree at William Mitchell College of Law in St. Paul, Minn.

Udem owned a private legal practice for over twenty years in Fayetteville, Ark. before returning to his roots in Montana.
