

YELLOWSTONE CHAMBER PLAYERS PERFORM WORLD PREMIERE

For more information: Carolyn Coefield, Rocky Mountain College voice instructor, carolyn.coefield@rocky.edu or Jennifer Bratz, RMC assistant music professor, (406) 657-1114

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BILLINGS -- The Yellowstone Chamber Players will open their 2011- 2012 concert season Sunday, Sept. 25, 2011, with an afternoon of trios featuring a world premiere performance of a new composition, "Emerging," for voice, clarinet and piano. Dr. Samuel J. Hamm, Jr. wrote the composition. Dr. Hamm is Rocky Mountain College associate professor of music, who teaches composition, music theory, and music history at RMC.

The concert, to be held at 3:00 p.m. in Taylor Auditorium of Losekamp Hall, is $10 general admission; RMC students get in free.

Also featured on the program is Dominick Argento's song cycle "To Be Sung Upon the Water," and Franz Schubert's "Shepherd on the Rock."

The trios will be performed by pianist Dr. Jennifer Bratz, RMC assistant music professor; soprano Carolyn Coefield, RMC voice instructor; and clarinetist Laurel Linde, RMC clarinet instructor.

#

9/11/2011