Music education majors must also complete the professional education program for K-12 teaching as outlined in the “Education” section of the catalog. Music education majors are encouraged to participate in a field practicum during both their sophomore and junior years.

Note: Piano Proficiency Requirement

Music Education and Performance majors must pass a piano proficiency exam as a graduation requirement. Elements of the exam include but are not limited to: major and minor scales, chord progressions, score reading, transposition, harmonization, accompanying voice and instrumental repertoire, accompanying choral literature, and playing solo repertoire. A piano placement exam will be given to each music major to determine placement within the either the class piano sequence or private instruction as appropriate to the student and at the instructor’s discretion. The proficiency exam is given after the four-semester class piano sequence or as appropriate for students in private lessons.
