Committee Updates:

Student Relations

Committee members have been attending events. Most events have had a good turnout, aside from the dodgeball tournament.

Publications

The new bulletin board is up, and the survey is almost complete. Publications will work with senate members to improve wording of survey questions.

Education

They didn't meet this week because of Weston's absence. Research about Fraley lounge furniture is ongoing. One option is to get new cushions and resurface the wood frames.

Old Business:

New Business:

Basketball Half Time Show

ASRMC would need to come up with something to do and to help run the show, but it wouldn't cost us anything. The games are this week, Thursday and Saturday. ASRMC informally decided against this due to the short notice but would like to do something similar in the future.

Club Updates

ASRMC is working to make it an expectation for clubs who receive ASRMC funding to come to ASRMC with updates, such as those given tonight.

Rocky Esports Update

There were 6-7 events last semester with at least 10 people in attendance each time. Several events are being planned for this semester, including events on March 20 and April 10. Only RMC students can win prizes from these events. Rocky Esports has gained a sponsor. They are working to create a Call of Duty team, in addition to existing teams for League of Legends, Pokemon, and battle royale games. The group is now Rocky Esports instead of Rocky Mountain Esports, and they are working to create a new logo, as well as team shirts.

MED Update

There was a meeting today. The head of the OT and PA programs was there to speak, and he talked about admission processes for different programs. There were at least 15 people there. The food was well received. There will be a suture clinic later this semester, with a proposal pending.

Meeting Adjourned: 7:54 pm
